

Sir Peter Leitch's MAN RESTRICT TO THE STATE OF THE STAT

AT MT SMART STADIUM, HOME OF THE MIGHTY VODAFONE WARRIORS

March 2014 to the second secon

Loving the Louiself

Well it was certainly not the result we wanted on Saturday night, but we do live to fight another day, and this weekend the Vodafone Warriors travel to Townsville to take on the Cowboys.

I need to say a very big thank you to all of you loyal Vodafone Warriors fans who braved the stormy weather to come to the game at Eden Park.

The crowd was just under 15,000, so who knows how many stayed away because of the weather, but the club can not have been happy with that number.

And a special mention to my mates from Waiheke, who battled high seas to get to the game. Legends.

For those of you who came to the lounge, I hope you enjoyed your time, and a special mention to Vikki Brown, who won a trip for two to the Anzac test in Sydney on May 2. It includes return airfares and accommodation, courtsey of the Vodafone Warriors.

She was a happy lady that's for sure.

Part of the money raised in the lounge on Saturday night was put into these accounts on givealittle.co.nz - Ella's journey, Vivian and Sophie's journey and Canteen Auckland, so its great doing a little for someone else. Well done to everyone who made that happen.

For those who could not make the game, we want to share with you some photos from the night. I hope you enjoy them, and remember, we only lost a game, and not a life, so enjoy your week and keep rocking till you drop.

Our next home game is in Wellington on Saturday, March 30, with kick-off at 5pm. And yes I will be hosting a lounge down in my former home town.

For Details about the Legends Lounge (level 2 East Lounge), see the promotion further down in this very Newsletter!

To book contact Dan Burton at dan@warriors.co.nz or 021 940 238

The Lounge was packed on Saturday, and there were some great photo opportunities, which we wanted to share with you here in this week's Newsletter. Everyone had a ball and let's face it, it was a great day for being inside!

Jaclyn Vazquez, Amy Felgate, Monisha Singh, Jordan Schofield and Petrece Kesha helping out in the Warriors Members lounge.

Parr Mano racing father in law Les Hibbs and Thomas Leuluai joins Vodafone Warriors members in the lounge and challenges a lucky few on the arcade games.

Roy Chan honoured

ormally I would of course talk about my beloved Vodafone Warriors, but there is a league matter of far greater consequence on my mind this week.

On Saturday the Mighty Mangere East Hawks play Marist Saints at Walter Massey at 2.30pm for the Roy Chan Challenge Cup.

It is a very special day indeed, because Roy was a great personally, because I regarded him as a good friend. servant of the Hawks, and we lost him last year in a tragic workplace accident.

Roy coached the Hawks and was one of those people if a job needed doing around the club, Roy did it. That meant he served on the committee, advised coaches, helped out anywhere where his expertise was needed, and filled the rest of his time by being a thoroughly good bloke. Losing Roy was a great blow to the club, and to me

So if I can be, I will be at the park lining up to cheer his

The day actually begins at 10.30am with the Under 20s, and the Reserves at 12.45pm, so if you want to experience local league, Saturday is a great chance.

The day will end with the presentation formalities around 5pm, but I suspect continue long after that socially.

Enjoy looking through the great Lounge photos in this issue of the Newsletter and don't forget to check out the local sport on offer this coming weekend. As always, enjoy the rest of your week, and be kind to one another!

Salute a champion

On Friday at 7.30pm I will be celebrating with a sports club I have a lot of time for the Breakers. The basketball team will be sending out CJ Bruton at Vector in what could be his final appearance, since he has decided to retire.

CJ has been integral to the success of the club, and is also one of sports nice guys.

The professionalism he brought to the club has gone a long way, and by no means is it exaggerating to say that he was critical to the back to back championships the club managed in the Australian basketball comp.

Everyone knows the Breakers have come a long way, and CJ has been a huge part of that, so it will be a pleasure to be there to cheer him on. So get along to the game and salute a champion.

CANTERBURY BULLS COACH APPOINTED

Canterbury Rugby League and the Southern Zone of New Zealand Rugby League announce the appointment of Darrell Coad as the head coach of the Canterbury Bulls for the 2014 National Competition to replace former coach Mike Dorreen who stepped down from the role after two years in charge.

Coad who has been involved with the Bulls for a number of years as their trainer made the move in to the coaching area four years ago coaching the Halswell Hornets reserve grade team to two grand final success before stepping up to the Premier coaching role in 2013 where the Hornets were beaten in the grand final by Hornby. Coad is coaching the Hornets again in 2014.

Coad has also been involved as a trainer with both the New Zealand 18s and New Zealand Residents sides.

The Canterbury Bulls kick off their 2014 campaign with an annual Centennial Shield fixture against Wellington in Wellington on Queens Birthday weekend before the National Competition begins in late August.

Canterbury Rugby League General Manager Craig Kerr, says "to have someone with recent experience at National Competition level and New Zealand level is something the selection panel was looking for and Darrell ticked that box. His enthusiasm for the game is infectious and that rubs off on his players.

Everyone was disappointed at the results from 2013 and the appointment of Coad is made with an eye to having the Bulls perform as expected on the national stage and the selection panel is confident that Coad and his management team have the capability of meeting those expectations"

THIS WEEK, IN THE ROUND 3 ISSUE OF BIG LEAGUE...

MELBOURNE STORM'S SECOND COMING. WITH CAPTAIN CAMERON SMITH ON THE BOOKS FOR ANOTHER FOUR YEARS, THE CLUB LOOKS SET FOR A SMOOTH TRANSITION OF THE NEXT BREED OF STARS.

FEATURES

- A salute to Jharal Yow Yeh whose career came to end this week after succumbing to an ankle injury he suffered in 2012. We take a look at the great heights he reached in such a short time:
- New Canberra coach Ricky Stuart has wasted no time ushering in the talented Jack Wighton to the five-eight position, giving the team a brand new halves combo with Terry Campese shifted to seven;
- Pat Richards is already showing he's no has-been, adding tries to his tally and showing everyone how drop-kicks are done;
- The heat is on some coaches just two rounds in, but should the blame for form fall solely at their feet; and
- BIG READ: It's a whole new ball game with the advent of social media and rugby league players can control their own destiny with some savvy management of 'likes'.

PLUS

The Top 8 FREAK rugby league injuries; Adam MacDougall delves into why results are so unpredictable; James Tedesco can be the next great fullback; 'Brandy' explains how injuries can affect more than just the inflicted player; Anthony Watmough By Numbers; Brisbane v Roosters Big Clash match preview; Who's That Kid? Find out more about the Sharks' young star Fa'amanu Brown; and the Round 2 Team of the Week.

GAME DAY: Official team lists for Telstra Premiership, Holden Cup, VB NSW Cup, Intrust Super Cup, Ron Massey Cup; lower grade previews; Little league; and Penrith team poster.
