MODEL FEATURES -

ENERGY SAVING MADE EASY

This eco-conscious model has Econavi - a revolutionary energy saving technology that delivers a wide range of benefits without any troublesome settings. It uses a combination of four sensors to detect your usage patterns to ensure efficient operation and a smaller power bill.

USER FRIENDLY DESIGN

The twist ice tray and height adjustable shelves make for more efficient storage and convenience. See all of your frozen items at a glance with the drawer type freezer.

CLEAN AND HEALTHY WITH AG CLEAN TECHNOLOGY

The Ag filter cleans circulating air to powerfully deactivate mould and bacteria, and reduce odours, keeping your refrigerator smelling clean.

FRESHER FOOD FOR LONGER

This model's high humidity vegetable case maintains a stable temperature and high humidity for storing delicate fruits and vegetables, keeping items fresher for longer.

OTHER NEWS

Super Simon nears milestone

Captain Simon Mannering will move within one match of making his 100th game as captain. That will leave him set to achieve the landmark when the Vodafone Warriors meet Newcastle in their first home game of the year at Mt Smart on Sunday, June 1.

Lousi injury not too bad

Utility forward Sione Lousi is sidelined after being forced off the field on Sunday with a knee injury, but his outlook is better than first feared. Scans have eliminated another serious injury to the right knee he had surgery on last year. It's expected he will be back in three to four weeks.

Softball NZ hits sponsorship home run

The most important sponsorship deal in the history of softball in New Zealand has been confirmed with a strategic partnership between Softball New Zealand and home building company Golden Homes.

It comes on the back of a rise in popularity for softball after the Black Sox won the world championship last year, and live TV coverage of the test series win against Australia in March.

Golden Homes is looking at a funding partnership with Softball NZ and the naming rights for the Black Sox.

"Golden Homes is honoured to partner Softball NZ and the Black Sox, and is grateful for the opportunity to team up with an internationally successful team," Golden Homes chief executive Shane Helms says. The deal is being celebrated by Softball NZ too. "The partnership is a major shift in thinking for us," Softball NZ chief executive Tony Giles said. "This partnership is an opportunity to promote not only the Black Sox nationally and internationally, but the game throughout New Zealand".

"The support will allow the Black Sox to compete internationally more often, ensure we continue to produce world champion teams, and over time will allow us to better support programmes from the grassroots level through to high performance."

FROM A FAN IN OAMARU...

Hi sir Peter,

Jesse from Oamaru here. Would ... like to thank u very much for the opportunity to watch the game from your lounge and singing me a memorable happy birthday. Mum and I had an awsum time and made my first live Warriors game a special one. A great win and a great weekend away.

Thanks again, Jesse.

As if having Sir Peter personally sing me Happy Birthday wasn't enough, he also asked for my address so he could send something in the mail. Three days later it arrives. Thank you very much mate, you're a true man of your word.
